NOTICE

The Department of Defense no longer places certain coded and abbreviated information on discharge documents provided to service members at the time of their separation from service. The coded information included the reason for discharge in the form of a Separation Program Number (SPN) and reenlistment eligibility (RE) code. The abbreviated information was the citation of the statute or service regulation which was the basis or authority for discharge. Former members who wish to do so may have this type of information deleted, if it appears on their discharge documents. Let us know if you wish the information as described above deleted from the attached copy. If you do, please return it and be sure to attach all correspondence, including this notice.
